DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 1, “in particular” renders the claim indefinite.

In claim 1, line 2, it is unclear exactly what is meant by “a bracket-shaped handle”.

In claim 1, line 3, “at least over portions thereof, being hollow” is not fully understood in the context of the claim.

In claim 1, lines 13-14, “encapsulated water-tightly in a carrier open at the top” is generally unclear and not fully understood. How can it be both water-tight and open from the top, since it would seem an opening would allow water to enter?

In claim 3, the end of the claim is incomplete.

In claim 10, “preferably” renders the claim indefinite.

In claim 11, “enclosed by walls on five of six sides” is not understood in the context of the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-6 and 9-12, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by German Patent DE19745149 A1 ('149). As shown in figure 3, and external door handle is provided including U-shaped shell 28 serving as a water-tight carrier for electronic components 30. A C-shaped front strip 29 is provided as claimed. Toothed recesses and projections are provided to receive ends of 29 in snap-fitting engagement by means of lateral sliding, as claimed. Element 29 is considered a decorative cover. Material of the container can be hard plastic.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 7 and 8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
